Speech activities for middle school

The top 10 high schools in the USA are some of the most exclusive. That goes without saying. But if you've got a bright kid (or indeed you are one), they're well worth the effort to get in — even if it involves moving out of state.Staten Island Technical High SchoolGranted 'Specialized High School' status by the NYC Department of Education, this school has a focus on technology. But its varied curriculum also includes the arts and humanities, as well as sports. There's also an emphasis on career training through shadowing and internships.Downington S.T.E.M. AcademySTEM stands for science, technology, engineering and mathematics — the foci of this International Baccalaureate World School in Downington, Pennsylvania. Applicants (with teacher recommendations) are required to undertake preparatory courses, submit an essay and attend an interview at the Academy.International AcademyAnother International Baccalaureate (IB) school, Michigan's International Academy focuses on English, the arts, humanities, education and a second language in addition to STEM subjects. Applicants are selected by lottery.Stanton College Preparatory SchoolIB institutions often appear among the top 10 schools in America, and for good reason too: They have to meet world-class standards. This Blue Ribbon School of Excellence in Jacksonville, Florida boasts a graduation rate of 100 percent.University High SchoolUniversity High School in Tucson, Arizona is specifically geared to preparing students for college. It shares a campus with Rincon High School, where University High School students may attend extra classes. To enroll, applicants must pass the Cognitive Abilities entrance exam with a qualifying score and have an acceptable GPA for the past two semesters.Design and Architecture Senior High SchoolMiami's design-focused magnet school has an economically diverse student body. Refreshingly, something like 40 percent of those enrolled come from disadvantaged backgrounds. Applicants are required to submit sketchbooks or portfolios and successfully complete an audition — regardless of their desired specialism.Gilbert Classical AcademyHere's one 'academy' that upholds the original meaning of that word. Its curriculum is rooted in the Socratic Method of teaching, emphasizing debate and critical thinking even (or especially) when it contradicts the teacher. Students are also required to complete 80 hours of community service.Liberal Arts and Science Academy High SchoolThis Austin, Texas institution attracts some of the most advanced students from the local area. Courses are project-based and collaborative, preparing students for academic or professional research positions. There are also plenty of clubs.Carnegie Vanguard High SchoolAnother Texas high school, this one in Houston, Carnegie Vanguard boasts a 100 percent Advanced Placement (AP) pass rate. Applicants require a teacher recommendation, transcript and universal assessment scores. But a gifted or talented identification might suffice.Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and TechnologyFor any kid looking to excel in a STEM field, there's really no better high school in America, reports The Best Schools site. Located in the eco-friendly city of Alexandria, Virginia, TJHSST covers a variety of topics, including artificial intelligence, quantum mechanics and marine biology. Application requirements include an entrance exam, essay, recommendations and a history of academic achievement. This task is particularly important to learn for note taking (even homework logs) and writing in school. This weekend, I quickly typed up a paraphrasing activity. The purpose of this activity is for the student to take a message, identify the key details, and re-write the message simply in his own words. I used it today with a few groups, and it targeted paraphrasingSnail Sentence Repetitionby Sentence Repetition Tasks are a great skills to practice! Sentence repetition skills are closely tied to expressive language abilities. Why is sentence repetition an important skill? The following are a few articles I found, these are not my views and are resources for your review. Do not base therapy/clinical decisions solely on these articles. --Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists in London: 20to%20repetion%20than%20mee100 Trials Sports Challengesby Peachie Speechie has been providing 100 repetition challenges since 2013!
